

The Byam Shaw : JOIN THE COOP READING ROOM

Quiet reading hours (2-5pm): thinking, reading, writing, invigilating
Lunchtimes and evenings: discussions, launches, readings, performances, archivings, reading groups, political rallies, talk shows...

Sustain and activate this experimental space

All CSM staff and students are welcome

In October 2010, The Byam Shaw Library was due to close. Because of immediate response by staff and students, the library space stayed open to operate as a self-organised resource. From October 2011 a co-op is being established to expand the community that maintains and programmes the reading room.
